

Dango – Privacy Policy

Last Updated: August 11, 2025

This Privacy Policy describes how Left Curve Software Ltd. (“Dango,” “we,” “our,” or “us”) may collect, use, and disclose personal information about you. This Privacy Policy applies to information we collect when you access or use our website, services, products, software, applications, or otherwise interact with us (collectively, the “Services”). Please read this Privacy Policy carefully and review this Privacy Policy often so you stay informed about our practices and the choices available to you.

1. Information We Collect

Depending on how you interact with the Services, we may collect information about you:

- We collect information you provide directly to us when, for instance you communicate with us via email.
- We automatically collect information about your interactions with the Services when, for example, you interact with the Services.
- We may collect information about you from third parties when, for example, our risk-related service provider reveals a misuse of the Services.

In connection with using or accessing the Services, we may collect the following categories of information.

- Information You Provide. Information you provide to us by which you may be personally identified, such as your email address, username or account identifiers, or other identifiers by which you may be contacted online or offline when accessing the Services.
- Communication Information. Information about communications you submit to us when communicating with us, such as through email, Discord, or other channels.
- Blockchain Data. Data from public blockchain networks, like public blockchain wallet addresses, transaction IDs, digital asset, smart-contract, or protocol address information, and potential associations, and/or identifiers.
- Device Data. Device type and other data about your device like its software and hardware details, browser type and version, and operating system.
- Log and Usage Data. We may collect information about your activity on the Services, such as inferences of your usage, content viewed, pages visited, and links clicked.

- Risk Related Information. Information such as the outputs generated by our anti-fraud, identity screening efforts.
- Information Collected Through Tracking Technologies. We may collect internet-protocol address (“IP Address”) geolocation data. We may also use cookies and similar technologies to collect additional website usage data and to operate our business. For more information about how we use these technologies, please see the Cookies and Similar Technologies section below. You may limit the use of certain cookies and similar technologies at any time (see the Your Choices section below for details).
- Other Information. Any other information that you choose to provide or that we request.

We may aggregate or de-identify information so that it can no longer identify you, as defined under applicable laws. We may use and/or disclose aggregated or de-identified information for any purpose unless an applicable law says otherwise.

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information we collect in connection with what we consider our Everyday Business Activities including using your information to:

- Operate and Provide the Services: including to contact you about technical notices or security alerts about the Services, respond to your inquiries, and personalize your user experience.
- Monitor and Improve the Services: including to analyze and monitor, review, and improve the Services.
- Conduct Research: including to conduct research, product testing, and troubleshooting.
- Facilitate a Corporate Transaction: including during a negotiation or in connection with the sale of part or all of our assets, the acquisition of part or all of another business, or a different transaction including but not limited to financing or bankruptcy.
- Foster Safety and Security: including to provide for the safety and security of our users and the Services including to detect and prevent against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activities, improve security, exercise any and all applicable legal rights.

3. Sharing Information

You should know the ways that we share your information and why we share your information. In connection with our Everyday Business Activities, we may share information collected from or about you in the below circumstances.

- Service Providers. We may share your information with companies that perform functions or provide services on our behalf such as our identity verification and webhosting service providers.
- Comply with Laws and Protect our Rights. We may share your information as we believe to be necessary or appropriate including to comply with applicable law, address actual or potential security incidents, address actual or potential transactions or activity that may be fraudulent, illegal, or violate the terms of our agreements or policies, resolve disputes, and to otherwise protect our rights and property or the rights and property of others.
- Investors and Acquirers. We may transfer your information to advisors, investors, potential transactional partners, or other third parties in connection with the initial actions or engagement of a merger, acquisition, sale of some or all of our stock or assets, change in control, financing, bankruptcy, or similar transaction.
- With other Third Parties. There are situations when we may disclose your information to third parties in connection with our Everyday Business Activities and such sharing is in accordance with, or required by, any applicable law or legal process.
- With Your Consent or at Your Direction. We may share your information with third parties when you direct us to do so or if you have consented to additional sharing of your information.

4. Cookies and Similar Technologies

Like most other online services, we use cookies and similar technologies to collect some of the data discussed in this Privacy Policy. These help us provide certain features to you and analyze usage information. The Your Choices section below provides additional information about our use of cookies and similar technologies and your ability to manage cookies.

Our use of cookies and similar technologies fall into the following general categories:

- Essential: cookies that are necessary to provide the Services and that allow you to access the Services.
- Performance: cookies that assist us with assessing the performance of the Services.
- Functionality: cookies that allow us to offer you enhanced functionality when you access or use the Services.

Dango does not generally treat the information collected by these cookies and similar technologies as personal information. However, to the extent that IP addresses or similar identifiers are considered personal information by applicable law, we treat these identifiers as personal information in such jurisdictions.

5. Analytics and Advertising

We may engage others to provide analytics services and serve advertisements across the web and/or mobile applications. These entities may use cookies and similar technologies to collect information about your use of the Services and your activities across other websites and online services, which they may associate with persistent identifiers. Their activities and your choices regarding their use of your information to personalize ads to you are subject to and set out in their policies. As described below in the Your Choices section, these providers may offer you a way to opt out of the collection of information used for certain advertising to you.

6. Your Choices

You have certain choices about how to protect and limit the collection, use, and sharing of information about you including:

- A. Opt-out of Marketing Communications. You may opt out of receiving marketing communications from us by following the instructions in those communications or by submitting a request to info@leftcurve.io. If you opt out, we may still send you non-promotional communications such as messages about our ongoing business relations.
- B. Opt-out of Cookies and Tracking Technologies. You can often adjust your browser setting to remove or reject browser cookies. If you remove or reject cookies, the availability and functionality of the Services may be affected. You may also limit or block cookies and similar tracking technologies by:
 - Using Privacy Plug-Ins or Browsers. You can block websites from setting cookies used for interest-based ads by using a browser with privacy features or installing browser plugins and configuring them to block third party cookies or trackers.
 - Advertising Industry Opt-Out Tools. You can also use these opt out tools to limit use of your information for interest based advertising by participating companies:
 - Digital Advertising Alliance: <https://optout.aboutads.info>
 - Network Advertising Initiative: <https://optout.networkadvertising.org/>

For more details on cookies on cookies please visit All About Cookies

- C. Email. We may offer commercial emails and email newsletters. You can unsubscribe from them by following the instructions near the bottom of the email or emailing us at info@leftcurve.io.

Where required by applicable law and depending on your jurisdiction, you may have access to certain rights. For example, the right to obtain confirmation that we maintain certain personal information relating to you, to verify its content, origin, and accuracy, as well as the right to access, review, port, delete, or block or withdraw consent to the processing of certain personal information (without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal).

If you are unable to exercise your rights using the mechanisms in the Your Choices section, you may email us at info@leftcurve.io. We may ask you to provide us with information, such as your name and email address, necessary to reasonably verify your identity before responding to your request. If we can't verify your identity, we will not be able to fulfill your request.

7. International Transfers

Your information may be transferred to a country other than the country you are located. We comply with laws on the transfer of personal information between countries to help ensure your information is protected, wherever it may be.

8. How We Protect Your Information

We use reasonable procedural, physical, and electronic safeguards to protect your information from unauthorized access or use including encryption at rest and during transit. Our measures are designed to protect against the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, misuse, alteration, and unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, the information under our control. The safety and security of your information also depends on you, do not share your private cryptographic key with anyone.

9. Information Storage

We retain your information for as long as necessary to provide the Services, fulfill our legal obligations, enforce our legal agreements, and resolve disputes. The retention periods for your information are determined on a case-by-case basis depending on the nature of information, why it was collected, and the applicable legal reason for the retention. We may also keep your information when necessary to protect the safety and security of the Services.

10. Age Restrictions

The Services are not intended for anyone under the age of 18 and we do not knowingly collect personal information from individuals who are under the age of 18. We will take appropriate steps if we encounter information collected from an individual under the age of 18. If you believe your child under the age of 18 has uploaded information in connection with the Services, please contact us using the information in the Contact Us section below.

11. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We are always improving the Services and create new features regularly. These updates sometimes require us to collect new information or use what we already have differently. Also, applicable laws frequently change. We will notify you of any changes we make by revising the date at the top of this page. If you object to any change, you can stop using the Services. After we post any changes, your continued use of the Services is subject to the updated Privacy Policy.

12. Third Party Links and Features

The Services may contain links, banners, and/or widgets to third party sites, applications, or services. We may also incorporate third party software (including open source software) in the Services. These links and features are provided for your reference and convenience only and do not imply any endorsement of information provided through these third party links and features, nor any association with their operators. Dango is not responsible for the practices of such third parties. Any information you provide to third parties on their sites or services is covered under their privacy and data collection practices and not covered by this Privacy Policy.

13. Contact Us

If you have any questions, please email us at info@leftcurve.io.
